Viking Runes

Lesson {0} Introduction

Introduction to Viking Runes & the Compass Rose Youth Club

The Compass Rose Youth Club was named after the {24} Runes that make up the Elder Futhark Runic alphabet, an alphabet used during the Viking Age and associated with Odin, the Norse god of magic and wisdom.

The {24} Runes that make up the Elder Futhark also form a "Rune Star" {1}, a three dimensional figure that resembles a compass rose or compass star, a figure on a compass, map or nautical chart used to represent the cardinal directions (north, south, east, west) and their intermediate points (northwest, southeast, northeast, southeast, etc...).

By studying the history of the Viking Runes and how they were created, we hope to find a new "moral compass" that will lead us toward a brighter future.

Supplies / Materials ~

What Do the Runes Look Like?

Bring examples of different Rune lists with pictures that shows runes are not always drawn/pictured in exactly the same way. There is usually slight artistic variation. However, for the most part, when drawn (i.e. by hand, for example as art or by graphic design/illustrative software) they are typically drawn as close to the "original" as possible, according to the Unicode {2} design.

Show different rune lists (that other people have created) and compare them to each other and the Unicode format. Runes were drawn a certain way for a reason.

Q: Why were Runes drawn the way that they were? Why are they supposed to match the Unicode design as closely as possible?

A:

Instructions for typing Runes in Unicode

Microsoft Windows

To insert a Unicode character, type the character code, press ALT, and then press X. For example, to type a dollar symbol ($), type 0024, press ALT, and then press X.

Unicode characters can then be entered by holding down Alt, and typing + on the numeric keypad, followed by the hexadecimal code, and then releasing Alt.

Mac

"Option" key + the number

Runic Languages

Icelandic, Norwegian, and Anglo-Saxon, Old English, Old Norse, Proto-Germanic, Danish, Scandanavian languages

Elder Futhark [24] Norwegian ~ The Compass Rose ~

Younger Futhark [16] Scandanavian or Danish

Anglo-Saxon [34] Old English

Notes

{1} The Rune Star https://www.cocorrina.com/products/rune-star? _pos=6&_sid=4c5badf90&_ss=r

{2} Unicode for Runes https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Runic_(Unicode_block)

{3} Runes https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Runes

